Dear Larry:

Congratulations! ScrapSource, LLC has been selected as a winner of the 2013 Dallas 100™ Awards. We are proud to announce that you are among the fastest growing, most dynamic privately held companies in the Dallas Area.

The Caruth Institute for Entrepreneurship at the Cox School of Business will acknowledge your incredible efforts, with two events in your honor. There will be a reception at James M. Collins Executive Education Center, Southern Methodist University on Wednesday, October 9, 2013 from 6:00-8:00pm. Our featured speaker for the evening will be Andres Ruzo, CEO, Link America the #1 fastest growing company of 2012. A light buffet will be served.

On Thursday, November 14, 2013, a formal reception, awards ceremony and dinner will be held at the OMNI Hotel, Dallas Convention Center, 555 South Lamar Street, Dallas, Texas. The reception will begin at 6:00pm. The awards ceremony and dinner will begin at 7:00. Reservations are mandatory for the evening's events. Jack Matthews, developer of the Omni and many other major projects, will be our keynote speaker.

Please mark your calendar for both of these special events. Formal invitations to the CEO reception will be sent shortly to give you specific information. In the meantime, if you have any questions regarding this prestigious award, feel free to contact Julianne Deering at 214-768-3689 or email jdeering@smu.edu. For reservations information, contact Ann Faison at 214-768-3030 or email afaison@smu.edu.

Congratulations once again, and we look forward to seeing you in October!

Sincerely,

Jerry F. White
